Know the Rules of the Road

Whether you're driving your car to get to work, taking a walk during your lunch break, jogging to stay in shape, or riding your bicycle after duty hours, it's important that everyone know the "Rules of the Road" for traffic safety at Picatinny Arsenal. The rules are there to prevent accidents and allow for the safe and efficient movement of vehicular and pedestrian traffic. Violators are subject to being issued a written/verbal warning, summons, administrative action, UCMJ action, and even arrest. For more information, visit us at:

Army Traffic Safety Program

Everyone who drives an Army vehicle must complete an online course designed to make people think about driving safety.

The Accident Avoidance Course is available through the Army Knowledge Online Learning Management Services. All Soldiers, civilian employees and contractor employees who drive Army-owned or leased vehicles must complete the training when they start working for the Army. Refresher training must be completed every four years. The course meets the four-year refresher training requirements of Army Regulation 385-55 and Army Regulation 600-55.

To enroll for the online course, visit Army Knowledge Online, <https://www.us.army.mil>. Click "Training" under the self-service menu, and then register through the Army's Learning Management System. In the welcome window, click on "Training Catalog." This opens a search window, where user should enter "Army" in the product name block. Then register for the Army Traffic Safety Program, Accident Avoidance Course for Army Motor Vehicle Drivers. Users will receive an e-mail confirming registration. To access the online course, open "Registrations" under the welcome ALMS welcome page. Click on "Transcripts," and then click on "Contents." Open "Army POV 1-3" to complete course.

Picatinny Arsenal Traffic Code

To ensure we' maintain an effective Traffic Safety Program, the Directorate of Emergency Services (DES) is currently staffing a new Traffic Code for Picatinny Arsenal. The new Traffic Code will also ensure we meet the requirements of Army Regulation 190-5, Motor Vehicle Traffic Supervision, 22 May 2006.

DES will keep you updated on the new Traffic Code utilizing The Picatinny Express and the DES Website.

And don't forget the new speed limit...
